

Andy Harjanto, Guppers Co-Founder

Andy Harjanto is Co-Founder of Guppers, Inc, an online and mobile business solutions based on cloud computing platforms. Prior to Guppers, Andy Harjanto was a Principal Program Manager with Microsoft Corp. In his 14 years with Microsoft, he worked on many Microsoft startup projects such as Active Directory, .NET Framework 1.0, CardSpace, security and mobile services. He was part of the Windows team that developed Windows 2000, Windows Server 2003, XP, and Vista. He's granted 7 software patents, 5 pending patents, ranging from database, directory service access, identity system and API access. Prior to Microsoft, he had 5 year of experience as senior technical consultant for Fortune 500 companies in Michigan, Ohio, and Kentucky. Among of his clients were Ford, GM, K-Mart, Rockwell International and CompuServe. He received MBA and MSc of Information Systems from Eastern Michigan University.